THE FIFTH DISTRICT

Toby Candor, now making a political survey of Eastern Maine, writes from Eastport to the Boston Journal, from which the following is taken —

THE CONGRESSIONAL BATTLE.

The interest in this section, and in fact throughout the district, centres on the Congressional fight. The election of Perham and Grant is made of secondary importance.—Hon Eugene Hale has been renominated by the Republicans for a third term, while the Democrats and few Liberal Republicans who can be found, are trying to secure the nomination of their favorites at the Belfast Convention, on the 30th inst. First on the list comes Hon Fred A. Pike of Calais, who has deserted the Republican party, and joined his fortunes with the Democrats, after at least two years of hesitation, and doubt whether to take the step or not. Then comes Wm. H. McClellan of Belfast, Samuel D. Leavitt of Eastport, and General Frank S Nickerson of Searsport, all straight out Democrats—Pike is probably making the best fight for the nomination, timid as he is in his political contests, and it is not unlikely that he will succeed. But if he meets with no better success than he did when here a short time ago, he will be sent to Coventry. His reception by the little conclave of Democrats, he conferred with, was decidedly cool, and he went home disappointed As the result of his engineering here through his right bower, Robert Burns, a veteran and incorrigible Democrat, the delegation of four elected by a caucus this evening to attend the Belfast Convention, consisted of three who go there to support Leavitt, and one, Burns himself, for Pike, Nor can the Leavitt delegates be induced, it is believed, under any circumstances to go for Pike, if Leavitt should stand no show of getting the nomination There is also a favorable prospect of some of the friends of the other candidates declining to give their support to Pike, for various reasons, one of which is that Waldo county contends that it is entitled to the nomination, and must have it whether or no. Another reason is that Pike's record against the revival of our ship building interests, is not relished by the Liberal Republicans. Besides he is in favor of admitting Canadian lumber free of duty, being interested largely in New Brunswick lands, which is also another objection urged by the Liberals

Furthermore a prominent and influential Democrat and business man of this place, who is one of the delegates to the Belfast Convention, and one of the fourteen Eastport Democrats a few years ago who voted for Breckinridge for President, affirms squarely, open and above board, that he will not vote for Pike — "I don't like Greeley," he says, "and shall only give him a passive support. But to be obliged to swallow Pike with Greeley is too almighty a dose. Why didn't Pike who was a delegate to the Philadelphia Convention, go there, instead of being out in Perry hiding behind Chadbourne's board pile to get rid of seeing people Do you think I would vote for Pike when he stood on the bank steps in this place during the war and denounced us here as hissing Copperheads and thieves and murderers? No, not I The fact is Pike is a policy candidate I go for a man of principle If I have got to choose between two Republicans, Hale and Pike, I certainly prefer Hale, who you know, Burns, has made the best Representative we ever had from this district" To this Burns replied, "Yes, that's so, But we can beat Pike." The other then observed, "I was born and have always lived a Democrat. But I had rather be beaten with a Democratic candidate than to sell out to Pike and have him successful," And the remarks of this gentleman, which were given on a public street a short time since in the presence of Robert Burns, whom he was addressing, elicited the unqualified approval of two other fellow democrats, who each declared that they indorsed the speaker's sentiments It will be seen by this that in relation to the nomination of Pike there are two irreconcilable elements among the old Bourbons of the Democratic party, and one of the number tells us if Pike should be nominated he will certainly vote for Hale and carry his friends with him Pike, however, is active at work, his runners scouring the district in all directions, and they contend that he will only be nominated but will be elected!

DISAFFECTION TOWARD HALE

We have yet to find one Republican who is disaffected toward Hale, but what admits that he has done well for his district in helping secure such Congressional relief to our shipbuilding interests as has been affected—a district which embraces nearly one half of the shipbuilding industry in the State Nor is it disputed that his Congressional career thus far has been of usefulness, and that he has reached a position of influence which reflects honor upon his native State In the face of such admissions, however, it is surprising to hear that the opposition to him by malcontent Republicans is on account of two or three appointments he has secured in his district, offices for which there were several claimants for each The opposition to Pike dates back to Hale's first nomination, which Pike threw away on account of getting badly scared, and for which he has never forgiven himself or Hale either. After Hale was elected and since then he has been persistently hostile to Hale, whom he believes destroyed all his chances for further promotion in the Republican party. Pike does not seem to be making much headway in getting up a revolt in the Republican party against Hale. Whatever disaffection exists will not jeopardize Hale's chances of an election. Even some of Pike's best friends have turned on him in consequence of his course His principal worker Washington Long, who for nine years was Collector at Eastport, but who now is a resident of Lawrence, Kansas, is perambulating this district, doing his level best for Pike When we stated that Long, after the expiration of his commission, wanted another term of office, and was highly indignant because Hale, at the earnest request of the great majority of the most influential Republicans of the district, would not have him reappointed the milk in that cocoanut is easily explained In Lubec there has been some slight dissatisfaction with Hale, but Pike is disliked so much that Hale will receive the united and cordial support of his party in that town which, in 1870, was lukewarm against him.—Moreover, any opposition to him in the Republican ranks would endanger the ticket for county officers, and that is plainly evident that personal grievances will be sacrificed.

In 1869 Mr Greeley wrote the following paragraphs—

"You must stop electing to the Legislature such men as Mattoon, Aiken, Banus, and three dozen more such, or corruption can never be vanquished If you lie down with such dogs you will get up alive with fleas."

Those three now are now for Greeley. How about the "fleas?"

In Pike County, Ill., one hundred and fifty-five old line Democrats have signed a call to organize an anti-Greeley movement.

Wah-Lee admits that Hollis Gleely is a "top-side farmer," but prefers "Glant," who "muchee fight."

THE REBEL ARCHIVES.

THE PLOT TO BURN NORTHERN CITIES—THE SONS OF LIBERTY—OPERATIONS OF MR. GREELEY'S FRIENDS

We have received a verbatim copy of the report made by Jacob Thompson secret agent of the rebel government in 1864, with reference to the plot to burn northern cities and to incite riots in aid of the Confederacy It bears signs of having been much handled—On one corner is the endorsement "Rec'd 13th Feb '65. J. P B." These initials are said to be very familiar to those who were acquainted with Mr J. P. Benjamin, the then rebel Secretary of State The signature is also recognized. It is dated Dec. 3, 1864, at Toronto Canada.

The first fact which it settles is that there was in the North in 1864 an organization styled the "Sons of Liberty," whose objects, to quote the language of the report "were political, whose principles were that government was based on the consent of parties to it, that the States were the parties, and that there was no authority to the general government to coerce seceding States

The society in June 1864 decided that it was useless to hold a Presidential election for it was evident that Lincoln would be re elected, but it was deemed feasible by a bold and vigorous movement to seize and hold the great States of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois—The first interruption of this plan was caused says the report, by the postponement of the Democratic Convention from the 4th of July to the 29th of August. Preparations went on, however, and the 20th of July was fixed upon for a movement, but afterwards this decision was reconsidered and the 16th of August was selected

This postponement was on the ground that it was necessary to hold a series of meetings to prepare the public mind The first one was held at Peoria, and to make it a success Thompson agreed to furnish the necessary money. It was held and says the report "it was decided success, the vast multitude present being swayed by but one leading idea—Peace" About this time the correspondence between the Confederates and Horace Greeley made its appearance. 'Lincoln's manifesto,' says the report, "shocked the country" The next meeting came off but was not a success

About this time a large lot of arms were purchased and sent to Indianapolis, which were discovered and some of the leading men were charged with the design to arm the members of the order for treasonable purposes. Treachery showed itself at Louisville Judge Bullitt and Dr Kaltus were arrested and sent to Memphis.

The day for the great movement came but Mr McDonald, candidate for governor of Indiana, thinking it would injure his chances, threatened to expose the whole conspiracy unless it was abandoned So nothing was done Arrests followed and the "Sons of Liberty" broke up.

The reports also gives the particulars of those aids from Canada which were carried out and the plans of others which were not accomplished The most important portion of this report stamps it as one of the most horrible documents which has appeared among the official records of civilized states for a long time One would infer from the perfectly cold blooded tone of the report that the hiring of agents to "organize" the burning of undefended towns was an ordinary incident of war among Christian nations, like battles, or assaults on fortified places We read that—

"Having nothing else on hand Colonel Martin expressed a wish to organize a corps to burn New York city He was allowed to do so, and a most daring attempt has been made to fire that city, but their reliance on the Greek fire has proved a misfortune. It can not be depended on as an agent in such work

I have no faith whatever in it, and no attempt shall hereafter be made, under my general directions, with any such materials During my stay in Canada a great amount of property has been destroyed by burning The information brought me as to the perpetrators is so conflicting and contradictory, that I am satisfied that nothing can be certainly known Should claims be presented at the war office for payment for this kind of work, not one dollar should be advanced on any proof adduced until all the parties concerned may have an opportunity for making out and presenting proof Several parties claim to have done the work at St. Louis, New Orleans, Louisville, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, and at Cairo. Within the last few days Dr K. I Stewart of Virginia, has reached this place, and very mysteriously informs me that he has a plan for the execution of something which has received the sanction of the President He is in want of money, and states to me that you gave him a draft on me for $20,000 in gold, which has been lost on the way"

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL

A. T. Stewart refuses to tell an interviewer whether he has given money to the Greeley cause or not

Senator Ferry of Connecticut in a letter to the Norwich Gazette says distinctly that he supports Grant and Wilson and that Connecticut is sure for the Republican candidates

The New York World expresses the hope that Mr Greeley will write no more letters "The business" it says, "is hazardous"

The Utica Herald says "Jeff Davis, flying in female attire, was not half so grotesque and cowardly as Democracy skulking in the old white hat and coat of Horace Greeley"

Lieutenant-General John Hay goes for Greeley, He would probably be Private Secretary, and that is 'a darned sight better business than loafing "round the throne"—[Cincinnati Commercial.

The New York Tribune admits that the colored voters of North Carolina are solid for the Republican candidates, and it now talks about their ignorance in a strain which would easily be varied into a denial of their right to the franchise

The only reason Mr Greeley did not preside at the dinner to Consul Butler, was the dangerous condition of A. D Richardson He did however send a note expressing his deep regret that he was unable to be present and his entire sympathy with the object

Lucy Stone denies the statement of the Springfield Republican "that more than half the leading Woman Suffragists are for Mr Greeley She says it is absolutely without foundation. She knows only one woman who has even an inclination that way"

The Providence Journal, Senator Anthony's paper, says that a private letter from a member of the Legislature of Mississippi, written on the 15th inst., expresses the belief that Grant and Wilson will carry the State by about 25 000 majority.

New York newspaper gossip Cyrus Field has sold his interest in the Evening Mail, the Evening Express is for sale, a new Republican morning journal is about to be started, Manton Marble is so disgusted at Greeley's nomination that he intends to keep out of the city during the campaign

THE LATE PRESIDENT OF MEXICO We have already announced the death of President Benito Jnarez of Mexico, who was seized with a fit of apoplexy on the 18th inst., and died in a few hours.

Juarez was born in the State of Oxaca in 1806. His family were poor, and his education was procured through the favor of a wealthy family in the neighborhood. He studied law and afterwards distinguished himself in that profession. In 1846 he took a prominent part in public life, being a member of the Constitutional Congress. In 1848 he was elected Governor of Oxaca, in which position he served four years. In 1853 Santa Anna banished him, but in 1855 he returned, and ... the latter became President he appointed Juarez Minister of Justice. Soon afterwards he was again appointed Governor of ... subsequently Secretary of State, and then President of the Supreme Court of Justice. In 1858, he succeeded Comonfort as President of the Republic The civil war which followed, the French conquest which culminated in 1864, in the establishment of Maximilian's empire at the City of Mexico, and final recovery of power by the Mexicans and the overthrow of Maximilian through the perseverance and ability of Juarez are familiar to all newspaper readers. Juarez was subsequently elected President of the Republic, and has conducted the government with comparative success

The death of Juarez leaves the government in the hands of Lerdo de Tejada, who being the President of the Supreme Court succeeds to the Presidency by the Constitution. He has had much experience in public affairs, but is rumored to entertain sympathy for the revolutionists

Mr John Thomas Ames, formerly of Rockland, now of Northfield, Minnesota, had his left arm caught in the gear of mills which he and his father, Capt Jesse Ames, own there, some ten days ago and so badly crushed that it was necessary to amputate it near the shoulder

The Gardiner Journal says Mr Chas Gifford, who lives out on the Marston road, has gone into the turkey business largely He finds a ready market for them Last week a fox carried off 38 old ones and 83 young ones Mr G, wants that fox and her family—will pay $100 for them, we are told

Steamer New York arrived at Portland Thursday bringing passengers of the New England, together with her furniture. The captain reports the New England lying on the rocks tipped towards land, with a hole in her bottom, but not broken up Her boiler and engine are in her, and an attempt will be made to get off.

Two young fellows, Austin Dalton and Joseph Carpenter, was before the Police Court at Biddeford, Thursday, charged with breaking and entering the dwelling house of Samuel C Smith, of Lyman, and stealing therefrom a gold ring, a set of gold shirt buttons, a $5 gold piece, and a note of hand for $4.25, and were bound over till the September term in the sum of $200 each

As two men were out in Portland harbor sailing in a thunder storm the other day the lightning struck the mainsail, that was almost at right angles with the boat, made a hole in it, passed to the part of the craft which it damaged badly, and then passed through the sheathing to the after part of the vessel One of the men was slightly affected by the shock but the other was not harmed

We learn from the Rockland Free Press that a barn at the meadows belonging to Mr Alden Austin, was burnt about 2 o'clock last Sunday afternoon The fire was caused by children playing with matches Loss about $260, and no insurance By the exertions of neighbors and friends Mr Austin's house was saved, though at one time the part nearest the barn was on fire The last chimney belonging to the Gen. Knox mansion has lately been toppled to the ground, the brick being wanted for other purposes Soon all vestages of this once fine residence will be removed, and "Montpelier," the house of the General, and the boast of our citizens will be as though it had not been

It would be well for truly loyal men—North and South—who think of voting for Greeley to just put this scrap in their pocket books and occasionally refresh their memories with it

"There is not a Democrat in North Carolina waged war upon the Union who opposed emancipation and enfranchisement, who was a member of the Ku Klux Klan, who is not for Greeley, there is scarcely a black in North Carolina, not one of the white Unionists who manifested his faith by something more than words during the terrible years of the war and the more terrible epoch of Ku Klux ascendancy, who is not heartily for Grant."

GREELEYISM EBBING The Boston Advertiser truly says—"Since the flush of excitement caused by the Baltimore Convention was over, the current of opinion has set steadily and strongly against the whole Greeley movement. The ablest Republicans who have gone over to the new Democratic combination took the tide at its flood, hoping they might control it. The speeches of Senators Trumbull, Schurz and Fenton, of ex-Governor Blair of Michigan and a few others, have been printed and widely circulated, but they have failed to create new disaffection or to confirm the old. The Democrats, though practically united in supporting the regular nominations, have as yet shown very little interest in them, and, if the election were held now, would cast the smallest vote ever given by them in a ... of ..."

SCHURZ AND HIS EVIDENCE.

When the insinuation of Senator Schurz that he had been proffered Executive patronage for his support of the San Domingo bill, was authoritatively contradicted from Washington, we learned by telegraph that the Senator would publish his authority, and some curiosity was felt as to the character of the man whom he would produce as evidence. The Senator's statements were so worded as to give the impression that he was approached by parties with these offers during the discussion of the measure, that a verbal interview occurred, that shortly after (such is the inference from his version,) he addressed the person and received a written reply confirming his former impressions. Prior to his publication of the letters in the Tribune, the telegraph was brought in requisition to strengthen the case in advance by adding to the rumor that ex-Commissioner of Revenue, Pleasonton, was the witness to this adroit statement:

"Pleasonton answered the letter quite explicitly, and it is this which can be produced. At that time Pleasonton was in high feather with the administration, and fully possessed its confidence."

The inference of this is plainly that Pleasonton wrote to Schurz while he was in confidential relations with President Grant. By bearing this in mind the reader will shortly appreciate the deceitful manner in which this last assault of the crafty German has been planned and executed. The debate on San Domingo occurred in March, 1871, Senator Sumner's great opposition speech being delivered on the 27th of that month. It was about this time that Schurz alleges the overture to have been made, and we are led to infer that shortly after he received the written confirmation. Now it happens that within a few months Pleasonton developed his quarrel with Secretary Boutwell, insisting that himself and not the latter should control the financial department, and that after lobbying in Congress for legislation in his behalf, and representing to members that the President was supporting him against the Secretary, his allegations were flatly contradicted by a request from the President for his resignation. Gen. Grant had striven to persuade him to be peaceable, but without avail, and even when his resignation was requested Pleasonton refused to tender it, disputing the question of law. In this condition of things, the President dealt promptly, and on the 8th of August, 1871, suspended Pleasonton from the office of Commissioner of Internal Revenue, which ended his official tenure. Pleasonton went out breathing fire and slaughter against the administration, and several scandalous reports concerning the finances were subsequently traced home to him. His "confidential relations" could not have existed, therefore, after the 8th of August, 1871, but his letter to Schurz, which we were to infer to have been written while he was on intimate terms with the Executive, is found to be dated on January 25th, 1872, or nearly six months after he was peremptorily turned out of office and turned into a bitter enemy of the administration.

It will be noticed, moreover, that instead of writing shortly after the alleged interview as insinuated, Mr. Schurz did not apply for a written statement until nearly a year had transpired and the person had assumed an attitude of violent hostility to the President, and would be most likely to aid an attack.—But the letter itself is evidence of the hollowness of the whole invention. Here it is:—

NEW YORK, Jan. 25, 1872

Dear General:—Regarding the conversation you refer to in your note, I remember it was with the knowledge and consent, and after I had a conversation with him, (the President,) that I called upon you and had the conversation you spoke of. My impression at this time is, that the President desired your support for his Santo Domingo scheme, and wished to be on such terms with you that your support could be obtained. I do not now remember any particular language used at my interview with the President, and would not hazard doing him an injustice by attempting to quote from memory, but the impression made upon my mind by the interview was fixed and distinct.

Truly yours, in haste,

A. PLEASONTON.

The impression sought to be conveyed by Pleasonton is evidently that he was the willing agent of overtures for the corruption of a Senator of the United States, which if credited would hardly place his character in a light to entitle his testimony to belief. His ready intimation that he consented to perform such disreputable work stamps him as unworthy of confidence. But his statements are exceedingly cautious and the failure of his memory leaves his letter susceptible of a more honorable interpretation than that of himself and Schurz. Nothing is said of "patronage," and in fact everything is conveniently forgotten except expressions capable of distortion. Such is the letter obtained by one enemy of the President from another, a year after the alleged transaction.

But Schurz's own statement in the Tribune is still more conclusive. He says Pleasonton came to him with the overtures and concluded by requesting him (Schurz) to "go and see the President," to which the Senator replied that he should consider it his duty to call in response to a note from the President requesting it; but the note never came, and to use the Senator's own words: "That was the end of it." Thus with no word or hint, no scratch of the pen, from the President himself, and with only the word of a discredited and vindictive ex-office-holder, Mr. Schurz has had the boldness to come before the country with an arraignment of the President's integrity. And even the letter which he quotes avoids all mention of the words which he says were used in his letter of inquiry, that: "I could have all the patronage I wanted, etc.".

The attack is about the most contemptible of all the vicious assaults upon the President and it needs only to be considered to be brushed aside with disgust. A man who would voluntarily publish himself as a broker of corruption while holding a high office of trust, is not a character with which the Missouri Senator can successfully impeach the honor of the Chief Magistrate and the Senator can only escape suspicion of complicity in a base slander by the general conviction that a man who would willingly appear in the attitude of his present witness would not have scrupled to falsify for the attainment of his own personal ends.

COL. LANG AS A REFORMER.

The Hon. Mr. Lang of Kennebec, who has been tolerably known heretofore as a political fugler of great activity and considerable local prominence, has for some time past been lying politically dormant until he recently burst from the chrysalis of disaffection and astonished and delighted his former opponents by dashing to the head of their column clad in the brilliant hues of Liberal Republicanism and bearing valiantly aloft the banner of "Reform." In the exuberance of his conversion he made a speech. And there the troubles of his new crusade began. For in that speech he recited the story of his self-denying devotion to public duty, and promised to lay before his brethren and the people the written proofs of his self-sacrifice in letters that had passed between himself and Speaker Blaine. Those letters have been called for repeatedly by the Kennebec Journal, but Mr. Lang has not made good his promise. Hence, the Portland Press remarks that this is not the first "question of veracity" that has arisen between Mr. Lang and other gentlemen, some of whom have seemed to come out of the controversy ahead; and suggesting that his statements have placed him "in the position of making his support of the Republican party conditional on his receiving a large sum of money as salary for some office, it mattered not what," the Press pays its respects to the zealous Reformer in the following spirited and unequivocal style:

If Col. Lang will answer categorically and truthfully the following questions it will be then clearly seen how fierce a passion of reform has driven him into a league with Pike, S. P. Morrill, Joy, Knight, Long and other disinterested patriots for delivering Maine up to Marcellus Emery and Charles P. Kimball:

Were you not in full sympathy and accord with the Republican party so long as there was a probability that you would become collector of internal revenue for the third district, with salary and perquisites amounting to many thousand dollars?

When it became impracticable to give you the collectorship, did you intimate to anybody that the Republican party was corrupt, that it had outlived its usefulness, or that you were anything but a devoted supporter of it so long as there was a probability of your obtaining the surveyorship of a Western territory, an office worth perhaps not much less than the collectorship?

Was it not at the precise moment when, all the largely remunerative offices to which you aspired having escaped your grasp, nothing remained for you but a position whose emoluments seemed trivial to you, that you became aware of the degeneracy of the Republican party and of the Lutheran spirit, hitherto dormant in yourself, that compelled you to assail it in the interest of reform?

If you say "no" to these questions, we say, that we can prove that the true answer is "yes," by an authority that it would be unbecoming in you, at least, to dispute. And now, one question more. As a matter of public interest, could you not state exactly how large a sum of money, in the shape of an annuity you regard as a fair equivalent for your support of a political party? We know from the induction of facts already made, that it is somewhere between one thousand and seven thousand dollars; but it is due to your new political associates, who are just going into business with you, to know the exact price they must pay. As for the Republican party, it has no fund for that purpose.

REPUDIATING GREELEY.

The following are a few among the latest declarations of Democratic and Liberal journals and leaders all over the country who repudiate the bargain and sale with Horace Greeley:—

The Camden (Ala.) News & Pacificator, a Democratic journal, refuses to support Greeley. It says:—

We have not the faith to believe that our country will be relieved by his election. He is not liberal toward the South—he never was. He was an earnest advocate of the notorious Kuklux bill before Congress, and urged its enforcement in the South even before it had become a law. To him, then, more than any other man, are we indebted for its practical operations in the South to-day...

The Prairie du Chien (Wis.) Courier, a Democratic journal, is to be added to the list of those which refuse to advocate the election of Greeley. The editor says that he knows there are over 500 of his Democratic readers in the County of Crawford, Wisconsin, alone, who do not wish to vote for Greeley.

In a separate article he says, that he has not seen a single really-satisfied Democrat since news of the nomination at Baltimore was received, and that "the absurdity of this politicians' policy scheme will be completely proven in the next four months."

In a recent conversation with a prominent citizen of Ohio, Hon. A. P. Edgerton, of Indiana, who was formerly a Democratic member of Congress from the Toledo District, declared that it would be impossible for any Democrat to vote for Greeley who had that regard for political consistency which every honest man should entertain. For that reason, he said, he should not do so.

Hon. William Sirwell, a distinguished and influential Democrat, of Armstrong County, Pennsylvania, was recently nominated by the Democrats of his county for Congress, subject to the decision of the conferees to whom the selection of a candidate ultimately falls. Gen. Sirwell has published a card, however, in which he declines the nomination, and announces that he intends to support General Grant for President and vote the entire State and County Republican ticket.

The Fulton (Ill.) Democrat has been a firm and constant advocate of Democratic principles. The nomination of Greeley and Brown by the Democratic Party has killed it. The editor said in his last issue that he could not consistently support those nominations, and therefore, withdrew from the field. Policy at this time, he said, could not gain the ascendancy over principle in his mind, and rather than, like many of his old political associates, dishonestly advocate the election of his life-long antagonists, he stopped the issue of his paper.

The Rochester Express has it "on the best authority, that Hon. Henry R. Selden has not recovered from the disgust he felt at Cincinnati when he found that the Reform Convention had been sold out to Greeley." Judge Selden caused his name to be erased from the list of signers to the recent call for a Liberal Republican meeting in Rochester.

The Atlantic Monthly, which has been bitterly hostile to Grant, says in the political department of the August number, "our preference and that of the American people, we trust, is for Gen. Grant."

Ex-Judge Clerke of New York, who was appointed on the new Tammany committee to give character to that body, resigns his position, and declares his purpose to vote for President Grant. He speaks of Tammany as being as corrupt now as it was under Tweed and his associates. No New York judge ever enjoyed a higher reputation than Judge Clerke, and his letter will have a good influence in that city.

The N. Y. Times, in addition to the laurels it won in smathing the Tammany Ring, and those it is winning by the splendid battle it is waging in behalf of the Republican party, has inaugurated and carried out one of the most commendable works of benevolence in securing subscriptions to furnish pic-nic excursions to the poor children of the crowded metropolis. The enterprise has been a great success, the "Times Fund" for the purpose now amounting to nearly 14,000, and thousands of the children of poverty have already enjoyed the benefits of this philanthropic undertaking.

A Democratic member of the New York Assembly, from Brooklyn, stabbed a Democratic city official fatally, it is feared, because he would not agree to vote for Greeley. A Democratic paper calls this a "hot political debate." We have heard before of a "bit of discoorshin wid shilialahs."

The Press says the good Republican town of Bridgton is thoroughly awake for Grant and Wilson. The News publishes a call for the formation of a Grant and Wilson Club, signed by two hundred and sixty-five voters. In 1870 the Republican vote for Governor was 278, and last year 318.

In his recent letter to Senator Schurz, Mr. Greeley spoke of "the accusing voice of history." Did he have a premonition of what the rebel archives would reveal?

The N. Y. World has discovered that:—"The Union Leagues are rallying around the Philadelpaia banner with a unanimity that is surprising."

"I venture to suggest that Gen. Grant will be far better qualified for that momentous trust [of the presidency] in 1872 than he was in 1868."—HORACE GREELEY.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills for Liver Complaint.

Liver Complaint, Jaundice and all bilious disorders arise from torpidity of the Liver, causing a flow of unhealthy bile; inflammation of that organ producing an overflow into the stomach and intestines, or from a derangement of the digestive organ with which the liver is so closely connected. Unhealthy bile in the gall bladder and the liver, still laboring, crowding this unhealthy matter into the blood, and which it then circulates over the body, causing a sallow tinge and torpor of the whole system. Either of the above described derangements of the functions of the liver produces numberless trains of diseases, the whites of the eye yellow, the tongue coated with a feverish white or brown tinge. Where the liver is disordered, digestion is unhealthy, sometimes a fair appetite and sometimes none at all; the patient will suffer from costiveness or diarrnea, or sometimes both; a general drowsy and melancholy feeling, often watchful and sleepless, great weariness; faintings are often felt. The stomach laboring to digest food, often creates a palpitation of the heart, and is frequently mistaken for heart disease. Frequently the skin breaks out in biles and sores, or marked symptoms of erysipelas, with great itching and insufferable restlessness. The irritation from scorged bile in the blood often produces an irritation of the mucus membrane of the bronchial tubes, and from a slight cold severe cough follows, with a dry ropy expectoration; often nausea and vomiting. This unhealthy bile mixed with the blood passes into the kidneys, produces pain in the urinary passages, sometimes pain in the back and darting pains through the shoulder blade, and frequently all through the body; a soreness is frequently felt about the region of the liver, across the stomach and spine. Many dangerous complaints have their origin in a derangement of the liver and stomach. Two-thirds of the cases of Consumption originate from liver complaint, intermittent, remittent and bilious fevers, bilious colic, costiveness, diarrhea, chills and fever, &c. Frequently one box of Schenck's Mandrake Pills will remove all those diseases; they have an effect on the liver similar to mercury. By taking a dose, according to the directions, and then one Pill a night for a week or ten days, they will regulate the liver and throw off all impurities, and soon perform its natural functions without the use of large doses of purgative medicines. In the spring of the year those billious disorders most commonly commence, and a box of these Pills may prevent a continuous disease the whole season. They are warranted not to contain a particle of calomel or mercury, in any shape, and are perfectly harmless.

My Pulmonic Syrup has been before the public many years, and has raised hundreds from their death-bed. Since the invention of the Mandrake Pills I can succeed in many cases where I could not before. The stomach and liver are often so inactive the Syrup cannot digest, and one Mandrake Pill, at night, although the patient will think they were having no effect, will soon regulate the stomach and liver without reducing the patient, and the Pulmonic Syrup will assist in getting up a healthy circulation. These Pills act on the liver similar to calomel, and I do solemnly assure the public that there is no calomel or mercury in their composition, or anything to injure the system. I met a gentleman the other day in front of the Girard House, and he asked me if I ever recommended my Pills for piles; I answered no. He said that Mr. Concklin sent to my store a short time ago and got a dozen boxes and gave him one, as his wife had been costive for years and had the piles very bad for a long time, and was almost afraid to take them on that account, but Mr. Concklin recommended them so highly, that she commenced taking them, one every night, and she is now well; it cured the piles, and her bowels are as regular as they can be.

These Pills were invented to assist Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup in curing Consumption when there is constipation of the bowels and a torpid liver, but they are used now for nearly every complaint. They even prove to be a great Vermifuge. Some few weeks ago, a lady called on me and said she had liver complaint for many years. I gave her a box of Pills. She came back in a week, and said she had passed several worms ten inches long.

An old gentleman in Baltimore, that had been complaining with a cough, pain in his right side, skin sallow, tongue coated, bowels costive, and a dried up appearance, called on me at my room. I gave him the Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills. He came back the next week to see me, and said he was much better, and that he had passed thousands of these small worms. He is now well.

About eight years ago, when I was receiving patients at the Marlboro' Hotel, in Boston, a Lady called on me and said she had been complaining for a long time with a Tape-Worm, as her physicians thought. She said that she was in great pain; at times something would twist around in her stomach, and even come up towards her throat and bite, and almost set her crazy; nothing would satisfy it but milk; she would have to take a quart every night to bed with her, and when it would begin to move she would take a drink to satisfy it. This lady, when she visited me, was a sight to behold, bowels very costive, tongue coated, breath offensive, and a dried up, sallow complexion, very nervous, and almost a subject of the insane asylum. I gave her some SEA WEED TONIC and MANDRAKE PILLS in large doses; ten pills for three consecutive nights, and then one each night for three nights (her bowels being in such a congested state, it required an enormous amount of pills to unlock them) and then to come and see me again. She came and said she was very sick; said she did not crave any milk now. This convinced me that the animal, or whatever it was troubling her, was dead. I ordered her to take ten more pills; after taking them she passed something resembling a snake or a lizard, between two and six inches in length. This lady is now well and lives at East Boston.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Sea-Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are Manufactured by Dr. J. H. Schenck & Son, N. E. corner of Sixth and Arch streets, Philadelphia, Penn. George C. Goodwin & Co., 38 Hanover street, Boston, and John F. Henry, 8 College place, New York, Wholesale Agents.

FROM EASTPORT

DEMOCRATIC CLUB ... FOR LIKE ...

EASTPORT, July 27.

A Greeley and Brown Club was organized here last night among the Liberal Republicans and Democrats. Among the officers chosen was Dr. H. C. Fessenden, a brother of the late William Pitt Fessenden, for President. Dr. Fessenden has always been a prominent Republican of this town. Speeches were made by S. D. Leavitt, C. H. Dyer, A. McNichol and others. Mr. Leavitt in an able and eloquent speech urged Democrats to bury all past issues, and strongly advocated the nomination of Hon. F. A. Pike as Representative to Congress.

THE NEW ENGLAND.

THE WORK ON THE WRECK.

PORTLAND, Me., July 27.

A dispatch from Capt. Coyle to-day says "We have tried faithfully with three steamers to get the New England off, and done nothing. We have all come to the conclusion that nothing can be done this course of tides. I shall go to St John to morrow and employ a diver, to see, if possible, what holds the steamer. She floated at least ten feet at high water, but would not move. We tried her all ways. The diver will be at Eastport Monday morning."

Capt. Field publishes his thanks to passengers for their aid and coolness, and says that from the commencement of the thick fog he personally saw that the courses were correct and properly steered, and attributes the accident wholly to the unusual direction of the tides.

FROM GARDINER.

FIRE.

A fire on Saturday evening partially destroyed the brick building on Water street, occupied on the first floor by the post office Libbey and Larrabee, grocers; on the second floor by the Oakland National Bank, the Gardiner, Pittston and Farmingdale Library Dr Williams, and Josiah Maxcey, Insurance Agent; on the third floor by three families.—Great danger was imminent at first, but a plentiful supply of water and no wind saved the building. The Libbeys lose about $1500 on the building. Fully insured. The stock of Libbey & Larrabee, $700; insured in the North British. Oakland Bank. $100. The Library was slightly damaged. Dr. Williams and Josiah Maxecy about $50. Berry's loss from $700 to $1000; insured in the ... of Hartford and a New York Company. The families in the third story lost everything, probably $700. They barely escaped with their lives. The fire was probably the work of an incendiary.

FROM PORTLAND

FLAG-RAISING.

PORTLAND, July 27.

The Democrats of this city hoisted a Greeley and Brown flag at their headquarters in Market square this evening with much enthusiasm. Col. Bradbury addressed the assemblage, and music was furnished by Chandler's Band. Another flag was thrown out on India street.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

FROM NEW YORK

GEORGIA REPUDIATION.

NEW YORK, July 27. The Times says there is great apprehension felt among the bankers and brokers of Wall street in regard to the proposed action of the Georgia Legislature concerning the repudiation of the Georgia State bonds on Monday. There are large amounts of these bonds owned in this city, and the repudiation would inflict serious loss upon many bankers who bought them in good faith. Should the repudiation be made, it is probable that the entire list of the Georgia securities will be stricken from the list of the New York Stock Exchange

THE COUNTRY FLOODED.

In Long Island city the streets were flooded several inches, filling cellars and basements, and making travel highly dangerous. The damage to crops will amount to about $5000. The Hoboken meadows were flooded and the water covered many portions of the highway. In Newark the entire line of the New Jersey Railroad avenue, a distance of half a mile, was under water from one to three feet, and in some factories work was suspended on account of the flood.

I am, yours truly,

HORACE GREELEY."

SWINDLING THE INDIANS.

A letter from Choctaw county states that the Congressional Investigating Committee, now here, has discovered that of over two million dollars paid for their Missouri lands none of it has been received by the tribe, but passed into the hands of a Baltimore lawyer named Latrobe, and the five delegates to Washington from that nation. NEW YORK, July 27. The Herald's Washington dispatch states that General F. A. Starring, our consular agent, in his report of the investigation of Consul General Butler's affairs, sustains by voluminous evidence the many charges deemed official and reveals a frightful state of affairs. The report has been at the State Department for several weeks. Among the charges sustained are ignorance and neglect of the office, violence, malicious persecution of missionaries and certain Americans in the Egyptian army, appointing consular agents without authority for pecuniary and other considerations, the dismissal of authorized consular officers, retaining money turned over by missionaries belonging to a minor child, abuse of official power and supposed complicity in the assault on missionary Strang by Strologe, his outside man. These are only a few of the charges made. THE GENEVA ARBITRATION.

ENGLAND'S LIABILITY.

GENEVA, July 27. The recent interruption of the sittings of the Board of Arbitration occurred through the necessary pre-examination of the English law on the questions regarding the construction of privateering vessels in British ports, and also the investigation as to whether the British Admiralty used sufficient diligence in preventing these vessels from going to sea. Of four cases advanced England repudiates three, and in the fourth she contends that the Admiralty acted promptly although the police hesitated to take steps to prevent their departure.

ALLOWANCE OF INTEREST—A GROSS SUM.

The court is also considering the question of allowing interest on the amount awarded. It is stated that a majority of the board are unfavorable to such allowance. It is regarded as probable that after a careful investigation of such case the Tribunal will fix the amount of indemnity to be paid by England in a gross sum

PRODUCE MARKET.

The following report is obtained by particular observation on the market and the quotations are the prices paid for produce from the country teams Saturday, or about the average for the week past:

HAY. New loose hay is now being brought into market in sufficient quantity to supply the demand at $12 to $16 per ton, occasionally some extra loads of old sells at $18 to $20 per ton. Pressed hay is plenty in the market, and is retailed from the storehouses at $24 to $28 per ton.

STRAW. Loose straw is scarce on the market, and sells from $14 to $17 per ton.

OATS are worth from 60 to 65 cents per bushel.

BEANS. The best quality of yellow-eyed beans are worth about $3,75 and extra hand picked pea beans $3,87½ to $4,00 per bushel. There are now very few old beans to come to market, and dealers must "wait for the wagon" that brings some of the new crop.

BUTTER has not been brought in in any great quantity during the past week, on account of the busy season of the year. We should quote store and mixed lots as selling from 20 to 22 and 23 cents, and the very best qualities are worth from 25 to 27 cents per pound.

EGGS have been in good demand on the market during the week, and to-day have sold quite up to Boston market prices from 24 to 25 cents per dozen.

POTATOES. Old potatoes will soon make their last bow to the audience, and step out of the market. They are selling at 20 to 25 cents per bushel, New potatoes of the early rose variety are plenty in the market and sold to-day at 90 cents to $1,00 per bushel

BERRIES. Raspberries are plenty on the market and are selling at 8 to 10 cents per pound, and in small boxes at 12½ to 15 cents per quart. Blueberries are selling on the market at about $4,00 per bushel

FRESH MEATS. Round hogs in good condition for the market are worth about 7 to 7½ cents per pound, and fresh Beef sells by the quarter or side at 6 to 10 and 13 cents per pound.

WOOD AND COAL. Good dry hard wood is worth from $7,00 to $7,50 per cord, and dry soft do from $4,00 $5 00. Hard coal for kitchen and furnace use is now being sold and delivered at $8,50 to $8,75 per ton.

—Elijah Low of this city has taken a contract to move a large building for S. A. Howe of Belfast, and will commence work at once.

—The proprietor of the Western Hotel at McAdam Junction will open a house at Vanceboro soon.

—Sig. Antonio Arrighi will give a free lecture on Life in Italy in the Pine street Methodist church to-morrow evening.

—Did our city contemporary intend a pun when it referred to "Arabian Knights" in its notice of the circus cavalcade?

—Thirty-six cars cars were received at the E. & N. A. station Saturday, one loaded with leather and the remainder with lumber. Five cars were received from the B. & P. road, two loaded with slate and one with excelsior.

—The citizens of North Vassalboro will be addressed to-morrow evening by Hon. Hannibal Hamlin of this city, and Hon. Wm. P. Frye. They will also speak at Winthrop on Wednesday evening.

—A road has been petitioned for from Springfield and Prentiss to Kingman, which will cross Mattawamkeag at Crossuntic station on the E. & N. A. Rrilway, about three miles from Kingman.

—The out-door meeting held at the E. & N. A. Railway station yesterday was addressed by Rev. C. G. Porter of this city, Rev. Mr. Ray of Medway and Rev. Mr. Roberts from the West. These meetings are well attended and have been productive of much good.

—The Greeleyites, with such curious Republicans as were anxious to see and hear Tilton, failed to fill the Town Hall at Oldtown at the "Grand" rally Friday evening.—The excursion from Bangor failed to make the affair a success.

A KNOCK DOWN. A rumor reached here Saturday that a serious riot was in progress at Oldtown, between some river drivers and the men in the employ of the Howes Circus Company. Our reporter visited the town, and found that the excitement was all at a distance and that peace and quiet prevailed. The only foundation for the story was a rumpus between a Frenchman and two Irishmen, in which the Frenchman was the victor.—Nothing more.

NARROW ESCAPE. On Saturday as a Mrs Jameson was driving on Grove street, her horse became frightened and ran, by which means she was thrown from the carriage, striking violently upon the ground. The course of the horse brought the carriage in contact with a post which brought him to a sudden stand-still, when Mrs. J. sprang to her feet and seized him by the bit, holding him until assistance came. The only injury resulting from the accident was the breaking of the carriage and harness.

OPENING OF GRANT AND WILSON HEADQUARTERS. The new "Wigwam" of the Young Men's Grant and Wilson Club of Bangor will be opened and dedicated as Headquarters of the Republican party of this city on Tuesday (to-morrow) evening. There will be a large attendance, several speakers will address the meeting, and the proceedings will be enlivened by the music of the Bangor Cornet Band. The "Wigwam" is intended to be the rallying centre of our Republicans in this canvass, the "latch-string" will always be out, and a hearty welcome extended to all. There should be a rousing gathering at the inauguration—and there will be.

—In accordance with instructions from Gen. Daniel White, Commander of the Department of Maine, a Post of the G. A. R. was organized in Augusta on Friday evening, by comrade W. H. Pennell, Inspector of the Department of Maine, assisted by W. B. Smith, of the Council of Administration, with a temporary organization as follows: J. D. Myrick, Commander; F. M. Drew, S. V. C.; W. B. Lapham, J. V. C.; T. S. Hutchins, Adjutant; R. Y. Crockett, Quartermaster; Geo. W. Martin, Surgeon; Geo. E. Nason, Chaplain; Sam. J. Gallagher, Serg't Major; Jackson M. Libby, Q. M. S.; A. L. Smith, O. D.; Fred. Gannett, O. G. Among the charter members are Adjutant General Murray, Gen. Connor, Gen. Boynton, Gen. Harris and a score of others.

THAT RUNAWAY. A gentleman who was one of the subscribers to the fund referred to, hands us the following communication:

Mr. Editor:—I notice in yesterday's Commercial a statement which is about as correct as anything generally published in that paper. The statement in question is the concluding part of the runaway in Pickering square, which reads:

"The team was owned by a Mr. Downes of Hampden, and as the wagon was much injured, a subscription was taken up by several Greeley men on the spot, and presented to him."

Now as to the sum given, the facts are these: Seventy-five cents was given by Greeley men, fifty cents by one, of whom it is not known whether he is for Grant or Greeley, and the rest was given by Grant men, who also took his wagon and fixed it up so that he could go home. G.

Bangor, July 27, 1872.

VISITING FIREMEN. We learn that the Atlantic Hose and Ladder Company of Amesbury, Mass., have made the final preparations for their visit to this city next month. They will leave home on the 8.40 train Monday morning, Aug. 5. After a short parade in Newburyport they will take the 10 o'clock train for Portland, where they will be received by a delegation of the Fire Department, who will perform escort duty for them during their short stay. At 10 o'clock in the evening they will embark on the City of Richmond for this city, arriving Tuesday morning, at which time they will be received and entertained by the Union Hose and Champion Hook and Ladder Companies. On Wednesday they start for home by the same route. They will be accompanied by Ass't Engineer R. O. Patten, of the Amesbury Mills Fire Department, and others. The Haverhill Cornet Band will furnish the music during the trip.

BANGOR POLICE COURT.

BEFORE JUDGE CLARK.

Saturday, July 27. State vs. George Cook; drunkenness; fined $3 and costs.

State vs. Andrew Orcutt; same offence; fined $5 and costs.

THE DEMOCRATIC LIES ABOUT NORTH CAROLINA FRAUDS. The Washington special of the New York Evening Post says:

Comptroller Taylor has made a transcript from the account of Marshal Carrow, of North Carolina, which proves the incorrectness of the assertions of Mr. Beck. Mr. Taylor says that no marshal is permitted to have more than twenty thousand dollars unaccounted for, and no one is allowed to have that sum unless the business of his courts is known to be large.

Regarding the assertion that Britton, who was lately reappointed Marshal of Arkansas, in place of Roots, was a defaulter during the previous term to the amount of one hundred and twenty-one thousand dollars, the Comptroller says: "Mr. Britton is not and never was a defaulter to the amount of one hundred and twenty-one thousand dollars or any other amount; his accounts as late marshal are closed on the books of the Treasury Department by the payment of money found due to him by the United States."

DOCTORS WHO DISAGREE.

Carl Schurz is now stumping for the election of Horace Greeley as President of the United States. One of the few things in the Cincinnati platform to which the Democrats sincerely subscribe is the clause opposing Federal interference to protect citizens against Democratic Ku-Klux assassins and to protect the ballot box from the frauds of "stuffers" and "repeaters." Mr. Schurz therefore makes this a prominent topic in his speech. How diametrically opposed are the views of the advocate and the candidate, may be seen in the following quotations. In Mr. Schurz's speech at St. Louis, referring to the Ku-Klux and Election Laws, he said:

"Study attentively the bayonet law, the Kuklux law, as they now present themselves in retrospective view. * * * What was the character of those laws, what their effect, and what the secret aim of some of the master spirits who designed them? Not only did they, while protesting the rights of some, break down the bulwarks of the citizens against arbitrary authority, and by transgressing all constitutional limits of power endanger the rights of all. Not only did they awaken in the breast of many, however well disposed, the grave apprehension that a government or ruling party assuming so much would stop at nothing, but such measures served directly to sustain in power the very adventurers who, by the revolting system of plunder, were violently keeping alive the spirit of disorder which that legislation was to repress. Some of the very worst of that thieving fraternity have been constantly hanging around Congress, bawling and pressing for the extremest measures, with no other view but that every such act would be likely to give them a new lease of power, and extend their freedom to steal."

And here is what Mr. Greeley said on the 12th of June, 1871, after returning from his visit to the South:

"I hold our Government, bound by its duty of protecting our citizens in their fundamental rights, to pass and enforce laws for the extirpation of the execrable KuKlux conspiracy; and if it has not the power to do it, then I say our Government is not a Government, but a sham. I therefore on every proper occasion advocated and justified the KuKlux act. I hold it especially desirable for the South; and if it does not prove strong enough to effect its purpose, I hope it will be made stronger and stronger."

The law here spoken of is the law exactly as it exists to-day, including the habeas corpus suspension, which has now expired by its own limitation.

Of the Election law he said:

"It is urged by the Democratic organs that the law is to be enforced in State and municipal elections. This is done to make it more obnoxious, if that be possible, to their party. But, unfortunately, this is an error. The law applies only to Presidential and Congressional elections, though we heartily wish it could be made to apply to all others."

As the Democrats are to vote for "honest" Horace Greeley and not for Mr. Schurz, their attitude on the above issues is strikingly grotesque. Perhaps the Commercial will explain which are to prevail—the doctrines of Mr. Schurz or those of Mr. Greeley?

GREELEY'S FRIENDS.

In an article on the "Infamous Alliance" the N. Y. Times uses the symbol employed in the Tribune when reporting the Baltimore nomination, of two clasped hands; but the Times adds significance to the cut by branding the hands respectively, "Tammany" and "Greeley." It then proceeds to enumerate a portion of the gang with whom Greeley has clasped hands, giving a brief account of each, and including the most prominent infamous characters of New York and elsewhere. The list is too long for us to publish entire, but we give the following citation of a few of the "Sample Traitors," with whom Mr. Greeley has lately become on terms of political and social intimacy:—

J. F. REAGAN, Confederate Postmaster General.

D. R. ATCHISON, Missouri "border ruffian."

J. Q. C. LAMAR, slave-trader, &c.

JAKE THOMPSON, Ex-Secretary of the Interior; director of plan to burn northern cities.

Col. E. M. YERGER, who murdered a Union officer at Jackson.

Ex-Gov. WESTCOTT, of Florida, "because it kills the Republican party."

GEORGE N. SANDERS, Greeley peace negotiator; aider and abettor of the St. Albans raid. See Tribune for description of his character. Now a guest of Greeley's, at Chappaqua, and a constant visitor at the Greeley head-quarters.

Col. JOLLY, of Alabama, Grand Cyclops of Ku-klux.

Gen. FORREST, Chief of Ku-klux and author of the atrocious Fort Pillow massacre.

Ex-Senator GWIN, of whom Mr. Greeley insinuated (Nov. 18, 1861,) that he was "cowardly," that he had an "unscrupulous nature," and "that while in the Senate he was not so much the counsellor and confidante of Davis as his confederate and tool." Recently a guest at the Chappaqua revels.

TRUMBULL'S SLIP OF THE TONGUE.—Senator Trumbull accidentally told more truth than he intended while speaking at a Democratic meeting in Morris, Ill., the other day. A correspondent of the Chicago Inter-Ocean thus explains it: "He said that St. Clair County gave Mr. Grant 1,500 majority 1868, and that it would give Mr. Grant 2,000 majority in 1872. The crowd commenced cheering right away, as the most of them were Republicans. Mr. Trumbull saw in a moment that he had made a blunder, and took it back and said that he meant Greeley. It was the only cheer he got through his whole speech."

WHAT DOES HORACE GREELEY WANT? An examination of the facts with reference to Greeley's complaint against the Republican party that the people of the South are fettered in the choice of their representatives, will confirm the inference that his great anxiety is to restore Jeff. Davis to political prominence. How shameless is his charge of want of magnanimity, may be judged by the following list which shows who among the leaders of the late Confederacy have been pardoned under the recent amnesty act. Among the more well-known who are now entitled to vote and hold office are Alexander H. Stephens of Georgia, Jacob Thompson, ex-Governors Letcher and Wise of Virginia, General Forrest and General Hill of Georgia, General Wade Hampton and William Herschel of Virginia, Genera Johnston, the Hon. R. Barnwell Rhett, the Hon. James A. Seddon, ex-Confederate Secretary of War; the Hon. Allen T. Carpenter of West Virginia; Col. D. A. Henry and A. H. Garland of Tennessee; the Hon. A. R. Wright of Georgia; Duncan F. Kenner and John Perkins, jr., of Louisiana; Chilton and Dargan, member of the rebel house; ex-Governor H. S. Foote of Tennessee; W. P. Gentry, Bocock, Pryor, Lenke, Smith, the Hon. J. C. Breckenridge, Judge John A. Campbell; Generals Joe Johnston, Bragg, Cooper, Hardee, Beauregard, G. W. Smith, Wood, Custis Lee, Fitz-Hugh Lee and Garry; Captains M. F. Maury, Semmes and Brooks; ex-Secretary Graham of North Carolina and Conrad of Louisiana, and ex-Ministers Forsyth and Jackson, and William Preston of Kentucky.

GERMANY AND GRANT. The Greeley organs, and notably the Tribune, have strenuously endeavored to persuade the Germans of this country that the German Government has been affronted by the French arms sales, and thus become hostile to Grant's administration. These papers do not pretend to deny that our relations with France have become more cordial than ever before through the able and friendly diplomacy of Minister Washburne, the President's appointee and friend, and the following extract from the Provincial Correspondenz, Bismarck's accredited organ, shows that our impartial course has also won the high esteem of Germany:—

We notice with intense regret that certain politicians and newspapers in the United States are unscrupulous enough to array the German voters in that Republic against President Grant on account of the course he pursued towards Germany during our war with France. We have said it before, and we repeat it now: The Government has found no fault with the conduct of President Grant towards our country during the war. On the contrary, he has given us many and valuable proofs of genuine sympathy for our cause."

THE "WHITE HAT" GAME. A Democratic paper tells with much glee the following: "A smart lad in San Antonio, Texas, recently took his stand by the side of a blind organ grinder, and hat in hand solicited alms—When his tile was nearly filled by the sympathetic passers-by he walked off, leaving the organist grinding away utterly ignorant of the whole transaction." If that paper had tried it could not have given a better illustration than this of the use the Democratic party is now making of Greeley, its candidate for the Presidency, and his "old white hat."

The N. Y. Evening Post has been looking over its foreign files and finds that in Germany such papers as the Berlin Germania, and Munich Volksbote, among the most intolerant of the Jesuit organs approve the candidacy of Greeley, while the Berlin Vossiche Zeitung, an organ of the Liberals, and the Provincial Correspondenz, Bismarck's immediate organ, counsel their German friends in this country to avoid all connection with the Greeley faction. The Post remarks:

How much influence German opinion has on German-American opinion we are unable to say, but of all the extraordinary things of the bewildering campaign, none is more singular to our minds than that "Jesuit organs" in the heart of Europe should be exulting over Greeley and Brown.

EX-POSTMASTER GENERAL RANDALL.—The death of ex-Postmaster General A. W. Randall, at his home in Elmira, N Y., is announced. He was born in Montgomery county, New York, in October, 1819. Here he received a good education, studied law and was admitted to the bar. In 1840 he went to Wisconsin and established himself at Waukesha, where he practised, and served a long time as Postmaster. In 1854 he was a member of the State Legislature, two years later judge of the second district, and the next and the next and during the exciting and trying years of the war, Governor of the State. Between 1861 and 1865 he represented the government abroad as Minister to Italy, and on his return was made Assistant Postmaster-General, and afterward, in 1866, he succeded General Dennison, and became Postmaster-General, which office he held to the close of Andrew Johnson's term. Since the close of that administration he has been measurably out of public life, and engaged in business affairs. The funeral will take place at Elmira on Monday, 29th inst.

THE TWO CANDIDATES. Prof. S. C. Bartlett contrasts the two candidates for President in this week's Independent, and shows how, with singular unanimity of conviction and determination, the great silent body of thoughtful men, East and West, who have no possible private interest at stake, and whose votes cannot be bargained away, support Gen. Grant. After explaining some of the reasons for this, and revealing a few of Mr Greeley's weaknesses, the writer says: "This man, who deemed it proof of the folly of Mr Beecher's Cleveland letter, that it 'had been applauded by every rebel at the South,' now goes forth as the Democratic candidate by the actual vote of Reagan, Bocock, Fitzhugh Lee, and scores of just such men. We could almost as soon vote for Andrew Johnson. Mr. Greeley now seems to us a dangerous man. And, while Grant is supported and opposed because he can neither be bent, brow-beaten nor bought, Greeley's chief support comes because he can be twisted like a copper wire, and has sold himself as cheap."

GREELEY IN MARYLAND. A Maryland correspondent of the New York Evening Post referring to a remark of that paper that Mr. Greeley can reckon upon as many Republican votes as there are subscribers to the Weekly Tribune," says:—

This is a mistake, and, according to my observation, a very great one indeed, if the sentiment of other localities accords with this. I know of no subscriber to the Tribune who will vote for Greeley certainly, and but one who entertains any thought of doing so, and he is undecided; while, on the other hand, I know of many subscriber who are the strongest kind of friends to Grant. Among them I count myself. I have taken the Tribune for fifteen years uninterruptedly, with the exception of eleven months in 1860 and 1861, when it was suppressed by order of a Democratic Judge of our Circuit and retained by a Democratic Postmaster, the present particular friends of Horace Greeley.

A STINGING REBUFF. The Greeley men of Massachusetts, in prospecting for a candidate for Governor, sent a "feeler" to Hon. D. C. Dennison of Royalton, and received the following patriotic reply, which was not just what they expected:

"ROYALTON, July 10, 1872.

F. Henry Willey: Sir—Yours of this morning is before me. I am fully of the opinion that the election of Mr. Greeley to the Presidency would be a disaster to the country, which would require years and perhaps decades to overcome.

I regret exceedingly that any one should for a moment believe that I favor his election. His success in this campaign will be the success of the Demcrats; of those who worked for, and perhaps fought for the success of secession and the rebellion (God be praised it was without avail,) and I cannot and do not wish to be in such political connections.

I have no aspirations for personal political advancement, but I labor and pray for the election of Grant and Wilson as I did for that of Lincoln and Hamlin, believing that the best interests of the country demand it.

Yours, respectfully,
DUDLEY C. DENNISON."

HORACE GREELEY'S OPINION OF THEODORE TILTON. As Mr. Tilton is now engaged in delivering glowing eulogies upon Horace Greeley and in denouncing the President of the United States, it may interest our readers to know what kind of person Mr. Tilton is, measured by Mr. Greeley's standard. Here are some of M. G.'s opinions of T. T. as published in the Tribune:—

"If apples are wormy this year, and grapes mildew, and ducks' eggs addle, and bladed corn be lodged, it may all be ascribed to the unhallowed influence of Mr. Tilton's Life of Victoria Woodhull, of which we give copious extracts in another place. It is certainly the most extraordinary book ever written out of Bedlam. Its richness of invention, its naive ignorance, and its innocent immorality cause us to wonder whether the veteran romancer, Paul de Kock, who died last week, did not amuse his first leisure hours in the Spirit World by dictating this preposterous book to the editor of The Golden Age."—[Tribune, September 11, 1871.

"In fact, no person who holds with Mr. Tilton has any right to marry at all. He has no right to the honors of marriage while he repudiates its essential obligation. The union that Mr. Tilton believes in is not marriage at all, but something radically diverse from that. It is the marriage 'a la jacque' of Parisian workmen and grisettes, which is expected to last a year, but often disappoints that expectation. Those who hold it superior to Christian marriage should prove their faith by giving it a distinctive name. Words are things, and Marriage is not what any one may choose to have it, but is defined by the dictionaries. If the Free Lovers are not ashamed of their creed, let them prove it by giving a distinguishing name to their 'substitute for marriage."—[Tribune, October 10, 1871.

The Boston Globe says: The disclosures of the corrupt intrigue of the Greeley candidacy, which have been made within the last ten days, have greatly damaged his prospects. The shrewd gamesters are finding this out, and are already hedging their former bets in his favor by betting two to one against him. Though there is no argument in a bet, yet straws show which way the wind blows. The simulated enthusiasm which was paraded at the first announcement of his nomination is fast dying out, and the Tammany stock may now be quoted as "flat."

NORTH CAROLINA. The estimate of Senator Pool, that the Republican majority in North Carolina will be 12,000, is known to the National Committee to be based on reports from inspectors who, under instructions from the State Committee, have lately made a tour of each section district. Upon these reports and a comparison with the last returns the above estimate was made and forwarded.

SENATOR SUMNER. The Boston Globe says of the Senator: "In his Reavis letter, a year ago, Mr. Sumner said 'The Republican party must be saved. What I can do shall be done for it.' If, in the spirit of that declaration, he should now come forward and lend his powerful aid to defeat the Greeley conspiracy and overthrow the Tammany Ring, he would display a magnanimity worthy of himself, and win fame and glory beyond anything he has yet achieved. This would end the reactionary struggle which is already waning."

IMPORTANT STATISTICS. According to a report just issued from the census office the total area of the United States is 3,603,844 square miles or 1,984,467 miles in the States and 1,619,377 in the Territories. For the whole country the number of dwellings is 7,042,833, with an average of 5.17 persons to each dwelling. For the States the number of families is 7,481,607, with an average of 5.09 persons to each family; and the number of dwellings is 6,941,603, with an average of 5.49 persons to each dwelling. For the whole country the number of persons to the square mile is 10.7; and for the States alone the number of persons to the square mile is 10 21.

BANGOR, July 26, 1872.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier.

DEAR SIR,—Allow us, through the columns of your very interesting paper, to say a few words on a subject which affects not us alone, but to a great extent influences the citizens of Bangor, morally, physically, politically, and religiously.

By the Statute law of this State—see Revised Statutes, chap. 124, sec. 20—"Whoever, on the Lord's day, keeps open his shop, workhouse, warehouse, or place of business, or does any work, labor, or business on that day, except work of necessity or charity, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding ten dollars."

In the face of this law, (never repealed, so far as we can find out,) a custom has prevailed almost from time immemorial, with a whole trade or profession, of openly violating it, seriously conflicting with the moral and religious interests of all concerned. We refer to the trade or profession, known as barbers or hair-dressers, to which we belong.

It is well understood that Sunday was intended not only as a day of rest from worldly toil, but also as a day on which we might avail ourselves, through the opportunities that surround us, of moral and religious culture.—From all these benefits so necessary to physical, intellectual and moral health, this custom excludes us. It may be said, that if any one of us, of this trade or profession, sees the evil of the practice, he has only to discontinue it, and reap the benefits which always accrue from the observance of the Sabbath. But to this we reply, that such is the strength of custom, that if one should close his shop on Sunday while others persist in keeping theirs open, his customers would soon leave him, and his business would be ruined.

We desire to close our place of business on the Sabbath, that those whom we employ and ourselves as well, may have the privilege of attending church on that day, and of availing ourselves of all the blessings which its just observance confers. We have for the last eight years and upwards, in this city, striven to pay every attention to our patrons, to be prompt to the very letter in waiting upon them, and proving that our highest ambition was to add to their comfort. But during that long period there was no Sabbath, for either our assistants or ourselves. We feel that in continuing this practice we are violating not only the laws of the State, the physical laws of man, but the laws of God; and we are constrained to come to a decision in suspending operations on that day, which calls for our present appeal to the public, and more especially to our patrons.

To the latter we would say, gentlemen, we will work at our post, from the dawn on Monday till the closing hour of Saturday at midnight, or even later, if necessity demand it, and serve you to the best of our power; but whether our fellows in the trade will close or open on Sunday we are determined conscientiously to do what we consider right in this matter. We ask you, therefore, from the kindest spirit, to allow us, from a certain date in the future to be yet named, to perform some time on the Saturday, however late, that work which heretofore has occupied us on the Sabbath, and we are persuaded, from the experience of men in our trade in Providence, R. I., Portland Portland, Me., and other cities of the Union where the Sabbath work of the past is now performed on Saturday, that obedience to the laws referred to, would in a very little while be proved entirely satisfactory. We appeal to the best moral and religious sentiments of you all, and have no fear of the results, having as we already know, the sympathy of the highest officials and the law officers of the city.

Thanking you Mr. Editor, for your kindness in allowing us so much space in your valuable columns, We are, Dear Sir,

Respectfully yours,
HENDERSON & JOHNSON,

THE HARBOR LIGHTS

BY J I N W CHADWI K

J g at the harbor s mouth she stood,
B hi l her was the beacon white
Which sends its kindly warning forth
Fr n vening sha le till mi ruing light,

A c e her was the golden sun
More golden shone her tossing hair
I ocean s azure at her feet,
W th her blue eyes ould not compare

F ill sheer the cliff whereon she stood,
An l though her eyes were downward cast,
I s ill ould row my boat anear
An l see their glory as I passed.

Patiently there she watched her line,
That sank among the golden wave!
Who would not be a fish? thought I
By such sweet hands if doomed to bleed

Sw t hands, but browner han the rock
Whereon her pretty feet had pla e
Which browner yet laid hold of it
With naked purity and grace

me day I dared to speak t her
"What have you caught to day my dear?
Nothing but just a thought or tw
W re thoughts than fish are swimming here

And have you caught this thought, my dear
That I love you and you love me
I dared not speak the question out
Su h joy as that might never be

E very day I pass her by,
But cannot bring my lips to say
My l a t is caught upon your hook
And cannot cast itself away.

Why should I speak? She would not slip
F om off the rocks into my boat,
And say "As thus forevermore
t s together sit and float"

She would not love, 'tis not her time,
I at naught that she can do or say
Can rob me of my right divine
e and worship her alway

J a den at the harbor's mouth!
By 'ay with their distracting light,
Y r eyes will wreck more venturous hearts
Than ever beacon saved by night

1st MORTGAGE BONDS.

Issue Only $18,500 per Mile.

THE ROAD NOW EARNING NET, NEARLY DOUBLE ITS ENTIRE INTEREST OBLIGATIONS.

THE LEADING POINTS IN RELATION TO THESE BONDS ARE AS FOLLOWS

The Stockholders have built a first class road and equipped it in a first class manner, mainly with their own money

They have built their road through one of the richest portions of the State, where all the old roads into Chicago are earning over $10,000 per mile per annum, and are paying large and regular dividends.

They have built the shortest road to the celebrated Block Coal Mines, whose products have large and increasing market in Chicago, in the manufacture of iron, as well as for domestic uses.

The road is already earning so large an excess of its interest liability that its Bonds are safe beyond contingency

The amount of the mortgage is very moderate, being only about $18,500 per mile.

While Railroad Bonds may be plenty, those upon profitable lines and for so small an amount, are seldom in the market

Over $1,200,000 of these Bonds have been sold in a few weeks to Trust Companies, Savings Banks, trustees of estates, and the most careful private investors, and but a small amount remains, for which early application should be made

That as only a small amount remains unsold, parties who want them should make immediate application

The Bonds are for $1,000 each, have forty years to run, and bear interest at the rate of 7 per cent per annum, payable on the first of April and October, both principal and interest being payable in gold in New York

Price .90 and Accrued Interest

We do not hesitate to recommend these Bonds as unusually safe. They are attended with none of the uncertainties of projected enterprises, and the prompt payment of the interest and the final payment of the principal, are as certain as any future financial event can well be
